CHARLES A. DANA.

1 vol. 2vo. 795 pages. In baif Morocco. Gilt top. $3.50.

"As the New-York correspondent of The Boston Transcript enthusiastically writes, "The elegiac composition, the exquisite sonnet, the genuine pastoral, the war-song and rural hymn, whose cadences are as remembered music, and the couplets whose chime rings out from the depths of the heart; whatever the old English dramatists, the ode writers of the reign of Anne and Charles, the purest disciples of heroic verse, the Lakista, the Byroule school—Wordsworth and Dryden, Mrs. Hemans and Scott, Shakespeare and Hartley Coleridge have made precious to soul and sense, are herein brought together; and more than this—the many isolated single notes, whose lingering harmony embasins their author's name, with the numerous fugitive "brilliants," heretofore of coknown parentage, cut from newsy papers for the last half century—the deep, soulful utterances of heroes and mourners, lovers and exlies, devotees of nature and worshipers of art—are here elegantly samered and chronicled.

"It is just such a volume as a man may give to a woman, albeit that woman is his mother, his sister or his wife, and is richly worth the place it claims on a lower shelf within arm's length, in the most select library."
